CHRISTMAS FEASTING AT CEVICHE

In Peru, Christmas celebrations start on Christmas Eve also known as Noche Buena. After attending Mass, families come together to enjoy a feast with lashings of roast turkey, apple sauce, salads and tamales, and at midnight we toast to Christmas day while wishing our neighbours a Merry Christmas under a sky filled with fireworks.

We're bringing some of this Latin American spirit to our festive celebrations this year, with an exquisite Peruvian sharing feast, pisco inspired tipples and fiestas to see in the season with joy.

Whether you're celebrating an intimate gathering of friends, an office party to remember or just want to enjoy the best party this side of the equator, we've got a little something to make this Christmas special.

Our menus are made for sharing, so dig in and experience the flavours of Peru.
